b) Total Weightage of for Undergraduate (BS 5th Semester) reserved seats will be 50% and weightage of entry test will be 50%.

c) General Examples for obtaining the calculated marks:

1) Calculate Marks of F.Sc. Pass candidates securing 850

Adjusted marks out of 1100 and entry test score 85 out of 150.

Solution:

(I) F.Sc Marks Calculation out of 50%.

Adjusted Marks secured in SSC = 850

Total Marks (SSC) = 1100

Marks Secured out 50% (I) =  $(850/1100) \times 50 = 38.63\%$

(II) Entry Test Marks Calculation out of 50%.

Marks obtained in Entry Test	= 75
Total Marks of Entry Test	= 150
Marks out of 50%	(II) = (75/150) x 50=25.00%

Total Weightage I+II= 63.63%

(2) In case the calculated marks of two or more candidates are equal then the merit will be decided on the obtained marks of the candidates securing higher marks in major three subjects in detail marks sheet of previous degree/certificate shall be ranked higher in merit. If the marks of the candidates are again equal after calculating the major subject's marks then the selection of candidates shall be decided on maximum age.
